

Project POWER

Protecting Our Wetlands Through Education and Regulation

October 12th, 2006
9am - 12:30pm

Manasquan River Environmental Center
331 Georgia Tavern Road
Howell, NJ 07731

AGENDA

- 9:00am - Check-in and Continental Breakfast
- 9:30am - Welcome and Introductions - Lisa Auermuller, Jacques Cousteau National Estuarine Research Reserve (JCNERR)
- 9:45am - Why are Wetlands Important? - Lisa Auermuller, JCNERR
- 10:15am - Freshwater and Coastal Land Use Regulations - Patti Cluelow, Division of Land Use Regulation, New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (NJDEP)
- 11:15am - Break
- 11:30am - Land Use Enforcement in Wetlands - Bill Neyenhouse, Coastal Land Use Compliance and Enforcement, NJDEP
- 12:00pm - Guided Tour Along a Wetland Boardwalk
- 12:30pm - Conclude

There is no fee for this workshop
Register at: www.jcnerr.org/coastal_training or call Lisa Auermuller @ 609-812-0649
Please register by October 5th, 2006

Sponsored by:

