

October 29, 2008
The Holiday Inn at Toms River

9:00am - Check-in/Registration

9:30am - Welcome and Opening Remarks - Commissioner Lisa Jackson, New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (NJ DEP)

10:00am - Opening Plenary – How Municipalities Can Plan and Design for Green and Energy Efficient Communities - Athena Sarafides, NJ DEP Office of Planning and Sustainable Communities

10:45am - Break and Networking with Vendors

11:15am - Concurrent Session #1

- Rebates and Incentives Available through NJ's Clean Energy Program - Commissioner Nicholas Asselta, Board of Public Utilities
- Green Building Concepts and Considerations -Heather Barnhart and Irene Boland, EPA Region 2

12:00pm - Lunch / Vendor Fair

1:00pm -Concurrent Session #2

- Becoming LEED Certified – Michelle Cottrell, IIDA, LEED AP, US Green Building Council (NJ Chapter)
- Low Impact Development/Green Stormwater Management in the Coastal Zone – Andrew Willner

2:00pm - Concurrent Session #3

- "The Green Future Roadmap" - Fred Profeta , NJ League of Municipalities
- "Green" Experiences to Share
  - The "Greening" of Monmouth University - Jim Ferris
  - Planting Rain Gardens - Bill Sciarappa, Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Monmouth County
  - Green is Good for Small Business - Robert Burke, Wayne Auto Spa

3:00pm - Networking and Vendor Fair

4:00pm – Conclude